

Causeway Lodge

HOW TO FIND US

We are located two minutes from the main Causeway Coastal Route (A2) which is signposted and runs between Londonderry and Carrickfergus. This is the designated tourist route along the North Coast of Northern Ireland.

Once you arrive at Bushmills / Giants Causeway or Ballycastle / Ballintoy / Carrick-a-rede Rope Bridge you are within a couple of miles of our accommodation which is located mid way between these two attractions.

At Whitepark Bay, virtually opposite the road to the Whitepark Bay car park and Hostel, you will see a road to the right (coming from the direction of the Giants Causeway) or left (coming from the direction of the rope bridge). This is the Moycraig Road and we are situated 2km along this road on the left hand side.

From Belfast: Take the M2 towards Ballymena, then the A26 to Ballymoney. Follow signs for Portrush and take the B62. After 6 miles turn off right signposted Bushmills onto the B17. Follow directions above or map detail.

From Dublin: Take the N1 North to Dundalk, then The A1 North to M1 to Belfast. (See from Belfast)

From Londonderry: Take the A2 towards Limavady, then follow the A37 onto the A29 to Coleraine. Follow signs for Bushmills at ring roads. Follow directions above or map detail.
